Auction Rules and Disclaimers

1. Use the assigned number on your name tag. It is your identification for auction purposes.
2. Write your bid number in the next highest bid space on the form located near the auction item. Minimum bidding increments will be posted for each item.
3. The volunteer will announce when tables are closing. At the sound of "closed," table volunteers will accept no more bids.
4. All items must be paid for in full by the end of Urban Campout. Cash, credit cards (Visa, Mastercard, American Express or Discover), and checks (payable to Girl Scouts San Diego) will be accepted. Credit cards may be pre-swiped at registration. The cashiers will present the certificates to the winning bidders upon payment and/or give directions for claiming items.
5. All sales are final. No exchanges or refunds. Girl Scouts San Diego is not responsible for any lost items.
6. All auction items must be removed from the premises at the close of the event.
7. Please note that all certificates have expiration dates and may not be used after those dates. Items or services may also have restrictions or qualifications that affect the value, applications or use to the bidder. Read carefully any restrictions noted in the auction listing and on the certificates. Purchasers are bound by the restrictions specified on every item. These items are not negotiable.
8. Pursuant to Internal Revenue Service code, only the amount paid "in excess of the actual cash value of the item" is tax-deductible.
9. The Urban Campout Committee has endeavored to catalog and describe all items and services correctly; however, every auction item is sold "as is." Neither the committee nor Girl Scouts San Diego warrants or represents, and shall in no case be responsible for, the correctness of description or authenticity of items and services.
