

Julia R. Brown Community Volunteer

Julia is a former member of the Girl Scouts San Diego Board of Directors and was in the Cool Women Class of 2005.

An executive from the life science industry, she has served as a member of the boards of directors of numerous drug development companies. Julia held senior executive positions with Dura Pharmaceuticals, Inc. and Amylin, Inc. She spent over 25 years with Eli Lilly and Company in progressively more senior roles.

Julia is a member of the board and past chair of Corporate Directors Forum, a southern California organization dedicated to high standards of corporate governance. She is also a member of the board of Cleantech San Diego, an industry association. Julia chairs the city's Sustainable Energy Advisory Board and is a member of the National Advisory Board of the Union of Concerned Scientists.

Actively engaged in the San Diego community, Julia is a member and past chair of the UC San Diego Foundation board. She serves on the Director's Council at Scripps Institution of Oceanography and the San Diego Symphony Orchestra board.

Julia received the Hugh Friedman Award for Director of the Year in 2016. In 2012, she received UC San Diego Chancellor's Medal. In 2014, the UC San Diego Alumni Association honored Julia as Honorary Alumna of the Year. In 2010, Julia received CONNECT's award for "Distinguished Contribution to the Life Science Innovation." She won San Diego Business Journal's "Women Who Mean Business" award in 2006.

Julia holds a B.S. from Louisiana Tech University and an M.L.A. from Harvard.