Reasonable accommodations shall be made for girls with disabilities to ensure that girls have access to activities.

There shall be no discrimination against an otherwise qualified individual by reason of disability or on the basis of age. Members of Girl Scout council boards of directors and the National Board of Directors shall be selected so that the boards of directors represent diverse population groups and can bring to their deliberations a variety of points of view and life experiences, as well as access to cultural, religious, educational, civic, and economic resources. Executive staff shall be selected as needed to provide managerial and specialist expertise, research capability, and continuity to support the delivery of program to girls through volunteers.

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION FOR VOLUNTEERS

In addition, to ensure full equality of opportunity in all operations and activities of the organization, affirmative action policies and procedures shall be utilized in the recruitment, selection, training, placement, and recognition of volunteers. Special emphasis shall be placed upon securing representation of underrepresented population groups.

SPIRITUALITY/RELIGION

FLEXIBILITY IN WORDING FOR SPIRITUAL BELIEFS IN THE GIRL SCOUT PROMISE

Girl Scouts of the USA makes no attempt to define or interpret the word “God” in the Girl Scout Promise. It looks to individual members to establish for themselves the nature of their spiritual beliefs. When making the Girl Scout Promise, individuals may substitute wording appropriate to their own spiritual beliefs for the word “God.”

PLACE OF RELIGION IN THE GIRL SCOUT PROGRAM

MEMBERSHIP DUES AND PROCEDURES FOR REGISTRATION

In order to be a member of the Girl Scout Movement in the United States of America, a person must register with and pay annual or lifetime membership dues to Girl Scouts of the United States of America. This is done locally through the Girl Scout council or USA Girl Scouts Overseas committee with which she or he is affiliated or through national headquarters if she or he has no council affiliation. Girl Scout councils account for membership dues in the custodian fund and transmit to GSUSA within the calendar month all monies received for membership dues. These funds are not to be invested by the council for the purpose of generating income for the council.

The Girl Scout membership year is October 1 through September 30.

New members of Girl Scout troops/groups, both girls and adults, pay $12 when they initially become members of the Movement.

Continuing members of Girl Scout troops/groups, both girls and adults, pay $12 when they renew their membership at the beginning of each membership year.

Nontroop-affiliated girl and adult members on both local council and national levels also pay $12 dues each membership year.

Lifetime members pay 25 times the annual membership dues at the time they become lifetime members.

11. See page 20, "Flexibility in Wording for Spiritual Beliefs in the Girl Scout Promise."

When a member transfers from one troop/group or position to another or to another local council, the member does not re-register until her/his current membership expires at the beginning of the next membership year.

The national organization determines the system and method for registering members through Girl Scout councils. Each Girl Scout council verifies the accuracy of the troop/group and/or individual member information and forwards it with the membership dues directly to national headquarters.

National Board members, National Board standing committee members, other national volunteers, and other adult members who have their contact only with the national organization use registration forms received from the national organization. They forward the completed registration forms and dues directly to national headquarters.

USA Girl Scouts Overseas use registration forms received from the national organization. They also forward the completed registration forms and dues directly to national headquarters.

The membership dues of one person may not be transferred to the credit of another person. Membership dues are not refundable.

Adults serving in more than one Girl Scout position pay membership dues only once annually.

GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL CHARTER

A Girl Scout council charter is a credential issued by the National Board of Directors of Girl Scouts of the USA in accordance with the Constitution of Girl Scouts of the USA, Article VII and Article VIII. A Girl Scout council charter defines the relationship between a council and Girl Scouts of the USA. It binds the elements of Girl Scouting across the nation into one large and cohesive Girl Scout Movement and gives us a common purpose.

A Girl Scout council charter is issued by the National Board of Directors of Girl Scouts of the USA to an organization exclusively devoted to the Girl Scout Movement in the United States, granting it the right to develop, manage, and maintain Girl Scouting in a specified area of jurisdiction, which is established by the National Board of Directors, and to call itself a Girl Scout council. A Girl Scout council charter is issued for no more than four years.

REQUIREMENTS FOR A GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL CHARTER

To receive and retain a charter, a Girl Scout council agrees:

- to subscribe to the purpose, adhere to the policies, and be guided by the standards of Girl Scouts of the USA.

- to develop, manage, and maintain Girl Scouting throughout the areas of its jurisdiction, in such manner and subject to such limitations as prescribed in the Constitution, Bylaws, and policies of Girl Scouts of the USA.
- to participate in the activities and business of Girl Scouts of the USA.
- to make reports of its work to Girl Scouts of the USA; pay its charter fee;¹² have at all times a registered board of directors; and make sure that all persons affiliating with the council meet individual membership requirements.

THE CHARTER, WHEN ISSUED TO A GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL, WILL CONFER THE FOLLOWING RIGHTS:

- the right to be identified with the Girl Scout Movement in the United States of America, which is directed and coordinated by Girl Scouts of the USA, a member of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts.
- the right to use the words “Girl Scouts” as part of the designation of the council.
- the right to use Girl Scout program and the right to use Girl Scout insignia in connection with that program.
- the right to use the trademark “Girl Scouts” and the service mark, as defined in Girl Scouts of the USA’s Graphic Guidelines, on products or merchandise obtained and used for the day-to-day operations of the council, including stationery, office supplies, items with council and camp names, and symbols, brochures, newsletters, and such items as Girl Scouts of the USA may hereinafter designate. Any other use of marks or insignia owned by Girl Scouts of the USA on products or merchandise must be approved by Girl Scouts of the USA. This includes but is not limited to merchandise to be sold by the council. This right is nonexclusive and nontransferable.
- the right to develop, manage, and maintain Girl Scouting throughout the jurisdiction of the council.
- the right to receive services from Girl Scouts of the USA.
- the right, through delegates elected to the National Council of Girl Scouts of the USA, to participate in the business of Girl Scouts of the USA.

12. During the realignment process, the initial charter fee for newly formed councils will be waived.

IN ACCEPTING A CHARTER, A GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL ASSUMES THE FOLLOWING OBLIGATIONS

- We understand and agree that, in carrying out the terms and other obligations of the charter applied for, we will act in accordance with the Constitution and Bylaws of Girl Scouts of the USA and that the rights and responsibilities granted in the charter are limited to the aforesaid Constitution and Bylaws.
- We also understand and agree that the rights and responsibilities granted by the charter cannot be delegated, nor can the jurisdiction for which the charter is sought be changed without the written authorization of Girl Scouts of the USA.
- By agreeing to adhere to the policies of Girl Scouts of the USA, we understand and agree to operate as a council in accordance with and to be limited by policies so identified, published, and distributed to councils by Girl Scouts of the USA, accepting them as binding on the council, on all its members, officers, employees, and those affiliating with it.
- By agreeing to be guided by the standards of Girl Scouts of the USA, we understand that as a council we have committed ourselves and those affiliating with us to follow and be guided by the standards published from time to time by Girl Scouts of the USA.
- We understand and agree that it is the council's responsibility to see that each person affiliating with it meets at all times the individual membership requirements established by Girl Scouts of the USA, and to register with Girl Scouts of the USA all girls and adults participating in Girl Scouting within its jurisdiction, whether in troops or in any other capacity, except those adults working in a temporary advisory or consultative capacity.
- We understand and agree that the charter applied for may be revoked or terminated by Girl Scouts of the USA under the provisions of its Constitution, that the rights conferred by the charter cease to exist upon termination or revocation of the charter, and that upon revocation or termination of the charter, the council can no longer and, therefore, will not exercise any of the rights granted to it therein.
- We understand and agree that the council's articles of incorporation and bylaws that are attached to the Application for a Girl Scout Council Charter are a part of this application. Furthermore, we agree that any changes or amendments to these documents will be filed with Girl Scouts of the USA in a timely manner.
- We understand and agree to pay the council's charter fee as indicated on the Application for a Girl Scout Council Charter.¹³

13. During the realignment process, the initial charter fee for newly formed councils will be waived.

NOTE: A task group is reviewing the "Credentials" section, including procedures found on pages 23-26, and "Criteria and Standards for an Effective Girl Scout Council" found on pages 27-28, and will be bringing recommendations to the National Board of Directors for action at a future meeting.

PROCEDURES FOR REVIEWING AND ISSUING GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL CHARTERS

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR PERIOD OF REALIGNMENT

During the realignment period, the National Board of Directors may extend a Girl Scout council's charter, as needed, to accommodate the council realignment process. The National Board of Directors may also issue such charters, as necessary, to newly realigned councils upon their completion of the realignment process, including their submission of an Application for a Girl Scout Council Charter.

Girl Scouts of the USA establishes the process and procedure for reviewing and issuing council charters, which is as follows:

- There is an annual assessment of council performance, called a "Scorecard," with respect to the criteria and standards for an effective Girl Scout council. Girl Scouts of the USA works in partnership with councils in this process. Prior to the expiration of a council's charter, the council receives from Girl Scouts of the USA an Application for a Girl Scout Council Charter. The council's most recently completed Scorecard is one of the documents utilized in this process.
- A GSUSA team assigned to the council completes the Scorecard, based on GSUSA membership data and audits and other documents submitted by the council, including a Scorecard Worksheet. The completed Scorecard is submitted to the council's board chair and the council's CEO for review. The GSUSA team arranges a conference call to discuss the Scorecard results with the council's board chair and the council's CEO. The GSUSA team completes a written report of the assessment, which is sent to the council's board chair and its CEO and to the CEO of Girl Scouts of the USA. The CEO of Girl Scouts of the USA provides a report to the National Board of Directors. If the council is not engaged in realignment, the assessment will be the basis for charter action.
- The CEO of Girl Scouts of the USA makes a recommendation to the National Board of Directors for action on a council's charter.
- The National Board of Directors reviews the recommendation and takes action on the issuance of the council charter for up to four years.

- Following action by the National Board of Directors on the renewal of the council charter, a letter is sent from the National Secretary to the chair of the board and the CEO of each council receiving a charter.
 - Upon the National Board of Directors' approval for the issuance of the council's charter, Girl Scouts of the USA processes the charter application and sends the charter certificate to the council.
 - In the event the analysis of a council's performance indicates that it is not developing, managing, or maintaining Girl Scouting throughout the area of its jurisdiction or fully meeting charter requirements, the council may receive a charter with qualifications.
 - In cases where a council is receiving a charter with qualifications, each member of the council's board of directors and the council's CEO are informed about the council's charter status. Qualifications are defined and annual benchmarks for progress are set. Insufficient progress toward meeting council performance standards in any year of the charter may lead to non-issuance of a succeeding charter.
3. A national team that includes at least one National Operational Volunteer will conduct an on-site visit and review.
 4. At least one month prior to the scheduled on-site visit, the council review team submits data relevant to the identified concerns to the national team.
 5. During the on-site visit and review, the council team and the national team review all of the relevant data. The national team gives an oral report on the team's conclusions to the council's board of directors.
 6. The national team prepares a written report of its findings and makes recommendations to the CEO of Girl Scouts of the USA, who, in turn, makes a recommendation to the National Board of Directors. The National Board of Directors takes the action required. Action related to the council taken by the National Board of Directors will be communicated to the council's board chair, board of directors, and CEO.

PROCEDURES FOR A PERFORMANCE AUDIT

The Performance Audit, which is initiated by the National Board of Directors, provides a process for review when the monitoring of required reports or other evidence indicates a sharp decrease in the level of the council's performance, as defined by the criteria and standards for an effective Girl Scout council and critical priorities, or if the welfare of Girl Scouting is threatened by a council's blatant disregard for policies or other obligations.

A Performance Audit will proceed as follows:

1. The National Board of Directors advises the council that a Performance Audit will be completed to address specific concerns. The specific concerns and a timeline for the review will be included in the communication.
 2. Upon receiving notification of a Performance Audit, the Girl Scout council's board of directors appoints a council review team of three to five members, including at least one officer or other member of the council's board of directors, and the council's CEO as a resource person.
1. A. Deficiency in respect to its resources, finances, personnel, administrators, manner of supervising the program, effectiveness in its attempt to reach and serve all girls within its jurisdiction, or otherwise, such that, in the opinion of the National Board of Directors, it appears that such council is unable adequately to develop, manage, or maintain Girl Scouting within its jurisdiction; or
 - B. Any act or omission, or any course of conduct that, in the opinion of the National Board of Directors, is not in the best interests of Girl Scouting; or
 - C. Failure to comply with any policy, credential standard, or directive issued or established by or under the authority of the National Board of Directors; or
 - D. Violation of any term, condition, or requirement of its charter.

PROCEDURES FOR NON-ISSUANCE OR REVOCATION OF CHARTERS

The National Board of Directors takes action on the recommendation of the CEO of Girl Scouts of the USA, if any of the following circumstances occurs in a council:

2. The National Board of Directors gives notice to the council involved, indicating the nature of the issues or concerns. The notice shall also state a reasonable time within which the council shall respond in writing.
3. The National Board of Directors shall provide to such council an opportunity to be heard by a team named by the National Board. The team shall receive and evaluate any and all information provided by the council, at such place and in such fair manner as the team shall prescribe, and shall then report its findings and recommendations to such council and to the National Board.
4. The National Board shall thereupon determine, in its sole discretion, whether the charter shall be issued or revoked, or may take such other action as it deems appropriate.

PROCEDURES FOR CHANGING A GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL JURISDICTION¹⁴

In all matters concerning jurisdictional lines, the National Board of Directors has the authority to make the final decision, either during the term of a charter or upon issuance of a new charter.

SECTION I

When two or more councils agree, during the realignment period, to participate in a realignment process:

1. Each council's board of directors must approve the change.
2. The councils create a Council Realignment Committee (CRC), which includes the board chairs and CEOs of the councils that are combining jurisdictions. The CRC develops a plan and timeline for carrying out the proposed changes in jurisdiction for approval by the boards of all the councils.
3. Councils convene membership (delegate) meetings to approve the CRC recommendation for board structure, to elect the nominating committee, and to give the CRC authority to act as a temporary board, if needed. A combined delegate meeting of all the councils is convened at a later point to adopt articles of incorporation and bylaws, to elect the board of directors, and to take any action needed to establish the council's incorporation.

4. The application is processed and the necessary changes in the official records of Girl Scouts of the USA are made. Girl Scouts of the USA notifies each council board chair of the approval of changes in jurisdiction. The councils notify their membership of the changes in jurisdictions.

SECTION II

When two or more Girl Scout councils agree to combine jurisdictions to create a new council:

1. Each council's board of directors must approve the decision to engage in the jurisdictional change, which must be carried out in compliance with the council's bylaws and the laws of the state in which the council is incorporated.
2. The councils develop a plan and timeline for carrying out the proposed changes in jurisdiction.
3. Each council's board of directors must vote on the plan of merger, consolidation, or other corporate reorganization and distribution of assets, and refer it to the council's membership for a vote according to the laws of the state of incorporation.
4. Following the completion of the process to establish the new council, an Application for a Charter for a New Girl Scout Council is submitted to Girl Scouts of the USA for action by the National Board of Directors.
5. Following approval of the National Board of Directors, Girl Scouts of the USA processes the application, makes the necessary changes in the official records, and notifies each council chair of the board and CEO of the approval of changes in jurisdiction. The councils notify their membership of the changes in jurisdiction.

SECTION III

When two or more Girl Scout councils agree to transfer a part of one council jurisdiction to another council:

1. Each council's board of directors must approve the jurisdictional change.
2. An Application for Change in Girl Scout Council Jurisdiction is completed by each council and sent to Girl Scouts of the USA.
3. Girl Scouts of the USA records the changes in jurisdiction in the official records. Notification of the decision related to the changes of jurisdiction is sent to board chairs of the councils involved. The councils shall notify their membership of the changes in jurisdictions.

Note: This process may be initiated by a single Girl Scout council, by several Girl Scout councils together, or by an individual community within a Girl Scout council. If an individual community within a Girl Scout council wishes to be removed from the council's jurisdiction and added to that of another council, the community initiates the request by sending it, in writing, to its own council board chair.

SECTION IV

The following steps are taken if or when agreement cannot be reached between the boards of directors of the Girl Scout councils to combine or transfer jurisdiction:

1. A board chair of at least one affected council must notify Girl Scouts of the USA that their boards are unable to reach agreement on the combination or transfer of jurisdiction.
2. A national team, including a National Operational Volunteer, will invite all affected councils to provide information on how the requested change will impact the delivery of Girl Scout program. Community leaders from the affected councils also may be invited to provide their reaction to the requested change. A summary of the data collected will be shared with each council board involved in the process.
3. Using the data provided from council and community sources, the national team will develop a recommendation for jurisdictional boundaries and forward it to the affected councils. The national team completes an Application for Change in Girl Scout Council Jurisdiction pursuant to the recommendations.
4. After the Application for Change in Girl Scout Council Jurisdiction is completed, the CEO of Girl Scouts of the USA reviews the application and recommends action to the National Board of Directors.
5. Following action by the National Board of Directors, Girl Scouts of the USA records the changes in jurisdiction in the official records of Girl Scouts of the USA. The action of the National Board of Directors shall be considered final. Notification is sent to each affected council board chair. The councils shall notify their membership of the change in jurisdiction.

PROCEDURE FOR CHANGING A GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL NAME

To select or change its name, a council should follow the procedure outlined below (Girl Scouts of the USA will provide guidelines for a council to select or change its name):

1. The council submits a proposed name (and up to two alternates) to Girl Scouts of the USA for review.
2. Girl Scouts of the USA notifies the council that the name(s) are consistent with the guidelines. The council starts proper legal proceedings to effect the change in name in the state in which the council is incorporated.
3. When the council receives permission or approval from its state of incorporation to use the new corporate name, the council notifies Girl Scouts of the USA that the corporate name has been approved by the state on a specified date and sends the amended articles of incorporation to Girl Scouts of the USA.

CRITERIA AND STANDARDS

FOR AN EFFECTIVE GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL

The criteria and standards for an effective Girl Scout council are established by the National Board of Directors to delineate the way in which Girl Scout councils are expected to fulfill their charter requirements.

The criteria and standards emanate from the major beliefs and principles of the Girl Scout Movement as expressed in the Congressional Charter and the Constitution of Girl Scouts of the United States of America. The criteria cover broad areas of a council's responsibility and serve as broad categories of measurement.

The standards are developed within the context of each criterion. They are the foundation on which all the work of the council should be built and the prime resource for all organizational review and appraisal. Essential to the chartering process, they also are an enduring point of reference for the desired level of performance.

CRITERION I: MEMBERSHIP EXTENSION AND ACCESS TO GIRL SCOUT PROGRAM

An effective Girl Scout council ensures that Girl Scout program is delivered to girls in all segments of its jurisdiction.

STANDARD 1

Based on a thorough understanding of the populations within its jurisdiction, the council attracts and retains membership from all areas of its jurisdiction and all segments of its population.

STANDARD 2

The council develops the structure and systems, including electronic means, for girls to participate in Girl Scouting using current Girl Scout materials, with program enrichments that meet the needs and interests of girls in the jurisdiction.

STANDARD 3

Program activities throughout every part of the council demonstrate the beliefs and principles of the Girl Scout Movement, as embodied in the Girl Scout Promise and Law and the four Program Goals for girls.

STANDARD 4

Requirements that ensure the protection of the health, safety, and security of participants are evident in all program activities, including those that use electronic means.

STANDARD 5

Through a comprehensive adult development system, the council recruits, screens, trains, provides support for, and addresses needs of adults who work directly with girls.

STANDARD 6

The council has a comprehensive communications and community relations plan that promotes and safeguards the Girl Scout brand image and that includes electronic transmission as a means of keeping all segments of the population well informed about the basic messages of Girl Scouting.

CRITERION II: MAINTAINING ORGANIZATIONAL INTEGRITY

An effective Girl Scout council sustains the purpose of the Girl Scout Movement by conducting its business through the democratic process, consistent with the charter requirements, policies, and standards of Girl Scouts of the USA.

STANDARD 1

The council board of directors ensures compliance with policies, standards, and procedures as stated in the Blue Book of Basic Documents and other GSUSA publications.

STANDARD 2

The council fulfills its corporate obligations as required by local, state, and federal law, and through the rights and obligations defined in the Girl Scout council charter.

STANDARD 3

The council has a nominating committee, elected by the corporation, that annually proposes a full single slate of nominees with the experience and skills necessary to provide leadership and direction to the council, and reflecting the diversity of the jurisdiction, for election by the membership body.

STANDARD 4

The council actively seeks to strengthen the democratic process to ensure that the membership is involved in direction setting and influencing major policy decisions.

CRITERION III: THE DEVELOPMENT AND STEWARDSHIP OF RESOURCES

An effective Girl Scout council has sufficient resources and assumes responsibility for managing them, in order to ensure the continuation and expansion of Girl Scouting in the council's jurisdiction.

STANDARD 1

The council's human resources policies and practices attract, develop, and retain operational volunteers and employed staff reflecting all areas of its jurisdiction and all segments of its population.

STANDARD 2

The council board ensures that all adults carry out their responsibility to raise funds to support the council's work, using methods in keeping with the principles, policies, standards, and goals of Girl Scouts of the USA.

STANDARD 3

The council board carries out, in a timely manner, its stewardship responsibilities with respect to development and management of all council assets: human, fiscal, and property.

STANDARD 4

The council board exercises financial leadership to provide for the perpetuation of Girl Scouting within its jurisdiction.

STANDARD 5

The council utilizes an integrated corporate planning/management system to maximize the effective and responsible development and use of resources.

STANDARD 6

The council receives financial support as a result of being actively involved and recognized as a critical resource in the community.
