

Tange Gavin Community Volunteer

Tange is a San Diego native who lives in Del Sur. She graduated from Grossmont High School and earned a BA in business with a minor in history at San Diego State University.

Her professional experience includes accounting jobs, controller at AMETEK US Bellows, finance manager at Tipton Olds/Honda, and general manager/owner at Tipton Honda. Now semi-retired, she was a pension plan consultant for 20 years.

Tange is an active volunteer for several community organizations. At Girl Scouts San Diego, she served on the Audit Committee for three years. An integral part of the Urban Campout Committee for 13 years, she co-chaired Urban Campout: Mad About Science in 2018.

She has volunteered at ElderHelp and assisted with backdrop production for San Diego Zoo's Rendezvous in the Zoo (RITZ) event for three years.

