

Claudia Silva
Director of the Office of Ethics and Compliance
County of San Diego

Gold Award Girl Scout Claudia Silva spent 10 years in Girl Scouting in Los Angeles. She achieved the organization's highest honor, the First Class Award (now known as the Gold Award). As a college student, she helped lead a Junior troop.

Claudia has completed two years of her first term on the Girl Scouts San Diego's Board of Directors and also joined the Board Development Committee in 2017. She is the former co-manager of the Sunny Trails Service Unit and previously served on Girl Scouts San Diego's Recognitions Committee.

Claudia's oldest daughter was in Troop 5026 (led by Claudia) though the Ambassador level, and she is now a lifetime member. Claudia currently leads Ambassador Troop 5137 for her younger daughter, who is looking forward to a Girl Scout Destination trip this summer.

Claudia was recently appointed as the Director of the Office of Ethics and Compliance for the County of San Diego. Prior to that, she practiced public sector law for 25 years, as County of San Diego Assistant County Counsel, National City City Attorney, National City Senior Assistant City Attorney, and City of San Diego Deputy City Attorney.

Claudia is a former member of the board of Access to Independence, a nonprofit providing services to help maximize the independence of people with disabilities.
