

TROOP GROUP TRAVEL

Traveling offers vast opportunities for girls to develop leadership skills. Girl Scout travel is built upon a progression of activities and girl-led processes. Girl Scout Daisies, for example, can begin with a discovery walk planned by the leaders. By the time the girls are Cadettes or older, they are able to plan their own national and international travel.

Choose this “Travel” option...

- Travel
Complete a field trip, day trip, or overnight with your troop. See the travel progression chart at sdgirlscouts.org/travel (also found in Let's Go!) for descriptions of the different levels of travel.

...Or choose three or more of these Travel Preparation activities.

- Interview an older Girl Scout about her travel adventures.
- Make a food, craft, or a piece of art from another country.
- Visit a campsite of an older Girl Scout troop during a campout.
- Earn the First Aid badge for your program level.
- Watch a movie or read a book about a girl who lives in another country.

Congratulations! You have earned your Global Girl Scout patch! Bring this signed booklet to the Girl Scout shop and receive the Girl Scouts San Diego Global Girl Scout patch.

Visit sdgirlscouts.org/shop for shop hours and locations.

Volunteer signature _____

Girl signature _____

Global Girl Scout Patch Program

For Girl Scout Daisies

and Brownies

Global Girl Scout activities help boost girls' AWARENESS of the world through cross-cultural learning opportunities. They also help her better understand important global issues—giving her the power, inspiration, and resources to TRAVEL as a GLOBAL CITIZEN and LOOK WIDER STILL when making the world a better place!

Girls
Looking Outward
Beyond
Any Limitations

Helpful Resources:

sdgirlscouts.org/travel

sdgirlscouts.org/global sdgirlscouts.org/safety

GLOBAL AWARENESS

Every Girl Scout is part of a special group of girls that stretches not just across the United States, but around the world. Girl Scouts of the USA (GSUSA) is a member of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS), which includes 10 million girls in 150 countries! All those girls are working to make the world a better place.

Raise your global awareness with these three activities:

World Thinking Day (Required)

With an adult, go to girlscouts.org/worldthinkingday to find out about this year's World Thinking Day award. Choose one activity that you can do to get started and list it here:

International Friends (Required)

With an adult, go online to research Juliette Gordon Low. She had friends in other countries who helped her make the world a better place. Who were her friends and what did these friends inspire her to do?

Choose one or more:

- Meet up virtually with a Girl Guide from another country or Girl Scouts who live in a different part of the USA. Find a pen pal from another state or a WAGGGS member organization.
- Complete a Civic Engagement badge activity. Learn more at girlscouts.org/badges.
- Attend a World Thinking Day event. What is something interesting you learned? Who or what do Girl Scouts "think" about when we celebrate World Thinking Day?
- Color a picture of the World Trefoil pin using blue and yellow colors. Learn what WAGGGS stands for, and the meaning of the symbols on the Trefoil pin and WAGGGS flag.

GLOBAL CITIZEN

"Global" means relating to the whole world. A global organization is worldwide and international, and from the beginning, the Girl Guide and Girl Scout Movement has been international in nature.

Become a global citizen with these activities:

Global Action Days (Required)

With an adult, use the Volunteer Toolkit or another source to find the Global Action Days toolkit. Choose one activity that you can do to get started and list it here:

Choose one or more:

- Learn about the Juliette Gordon Low World Friendship Fund.
- Complete an activity from a petal or badge with an international component. Learn more at girlscouts.org/badges.
- Make a collage about another country. Include WAGGGS uniforms in your images.
- Answer this: What is the United Nations and how many members does it have?

LOOK WIDER STILL

There is always more to explore when you go global! This section will lead you to the next step in Girl Scouting, and in yourself.

Look wider still with these activities:

Travel Plans (Required)

List places where you can travel by using funds earned from the cookie program or fall product program.

Choose one or more:

- Learn about the San Francisco bridging event. Plan to attend when you are a Girl Scout Junior!
- Plan for a day trip with your troop. Create a packing list and learn to make a snack to share.
- Tour a World Center online and learn the World Song.
- Take a virtual tour of the United Nations (un.org).
- Brownies, plan a trip using at least two modes of travel, including public transportation. Your destination should be at least 30 minutes from your usual meeting place. Keep the cost of the trip under $25 total. (Taking the trip is optional.)

*"Look wide, and even when you think you are looking wide—look wider still."
Robert Baden-Powell*