

TROOP GROUP TRAVEL

Traveling offers vast opportunities for girls to develop leadership skills. Girl Scout travel is built upon a progression of activities and girl-led processes. Girl Scout Daisies, for example, can begin with a discovery walk planned by the leaders. By the time the girls are Cadettes or older, they are able to plan their own national and international travel.

Choose this “Travel” option...

- Travel
Complete an Advanced Domestic or International trip with your troop. See the travel progression chart at sdgirlscouts.org/travel (also found in Let’s Go!) for descriptions of the different levels of travel.

...Or choose three or more of these Travel Preparation activities.

- Take a virtual tour of the WAGGGS World Centers at girlscouts.org/wagggs. What activities could you do there if you visited?
- Share about your travel adventures with younger Girl Scouts at a service unit meeting or event.
- Attend the Destinations Expo or apply to be a girl leader on the Global Action Team at sdgirlscouts.org/global.
- Earn the First Aid badge for your program level. Learn more at girlscouts.org/badges.

Congratulations! You have earned your Global Girl Scout patch! Bring this signed booklet to the Girl Scout shop and receive the Girl Scouts San Diego Global Girl Scout patch.

Global Girl Scout Patch Program

For Girl Scout Seniors and Ambassadors

Global Girl Scout activities help boost girls' AWARENESS of the world through cross-cultural learning opportunities. They also help her better understand important global issues—giving her the power, inspiration, and resources to TRAVEL as a GLOBAL CITIZEN and LOOK WIDER STILL when making the world a better place!

GLOBAL AWARENESS

Every Girl Scout is part of a special group of girls that stretches not just across the United States, but around the world. Girl Scouts of the USA (GSUSA) is a member of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS), which includes 10 million girls in 150 countries! All those girls are working to make the world a better place.

Raise your global awareness with these three activities:

World Thinking Day (Required)

With an adult, go to girlscouts.org/worldthinkingday and find out about this year's World Thinking Day award. Choose one activity that you can do to get started. Write down what you plan to do and how you plan to share it.

International Friends (Required)

Complete steps two, three, or four from the Girl Scout Way badge for your program level. Write down or discuss how "sharing the Girl Scout legacy" would be different if you were a Girl Guide in another country.

Choose one or more:

- Learn about Doctors Without Borders or the International Committee of the Red Cross. What role do they play in supporting countries throughout the world?
- Discuss the legacy of Juliette Gordon Low and Lord and Lady Baden Powell. Think about what you want your legacy to be, and discuss what steps you are taking to build it.
- Research Girl Scout Destinations. Write down or discuss where you dream of going.
- Complete a Civic Engagement badge activity. Learn more at girlscouts.org/badges.

GLOBAL CITIZEN

"Global" means relating to the whole world. A global organization is worldwide and international, and from the beginning, the Girl Guide and Girl Scout Movement has been international in nature.

Become a global citizen with these activities:

Explore Fair Trade (Required)

Research and discuss how Fair Trade impacts economies around the world. Learn more by watching a documentary like "Period. End of Sentence" on Netflix. List any Fair Trade items you own.

Choose one or more:

- Take a virtual tour of the WAGGGS World Centers at girlscouts.org/waggggs. Plan activities you could do if you visited one.
- Discuss how your Gold Award or Journey Take Action Project connects to the world.
- Do an activity from a badge with international component. Learn more at girlscouts.org/badges.
- Learn about the Juliette Gordon Low World Friendship Fund.
- Serve on the planning team for your troop or service unit World Thinking Day celebration.

LOOK WIDER STILL

There is always more to explore when you go global! This section will lead you to the next step in Girl Scouting, and in yourself.

Look wider still with these activities:

Travel Plans (choose one):

- Look at the Girl Scout Destinations listed on girlscouts.org/travel. Apply for one to four Destinations you might like to attend. (Attendance is not required.)
- Plan a troop trip outside of our state or country. Research how to get there, where to stay, and inexpensive activities. Develop a budget and itinerary. Plan to connect with Girl Scouts or Girl Guides while visiting. (Taking the trip is optional.)

Choose one or more:

- Learn about World Center volunteer opportunities for high school graduates.
- Investigate study abroad programs at colleges that you are considering.
- Incorporate one or more of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals into your travels or field trips.
- Visit a WAGGGS World Center. Learn more at girlscouts.org/waggggs.
- Learn about Global Leadership Opportunities at girlscouts.org/waggggs.
- Attend a GSUSA National Council Session.
- Make a plan to stay current on global issues after high school graduation.
