

Dear parents,

At our next troop meeting on [date and time], we will be working with the topic of [list topic or topics]. I'm letting you know about our plans because of the complex nature of the subject matter. You may want to read about and/or discuss the topic(s) ahead of time with your girl, although that is not required. If you decide you do not wish for your girl to participate, please let us know.

Meeting agenda:

1. Leaders ask what girls know about [topic(s)].
2. Girls share and discuss with leader facilitation.
3. Read What Girl Scouts Stands For, a message from Sylvia Acevedo, GSUSA's CEO and talk about what the message and words mean.

We may use the following additional discussion points and resources:

[List resources you'll be sharing with girls]

Girl Scout Resources for Parents:

Help Your Kids Take Action Against Racism

Girl Scouts San Diego's Equity and Social Justice webpage

Please let us know if you have any questions.

[Signed by all troop leaders and assistant leaders]
