

Kristin Wiggins
Chief Advancement Officer

As Chief Advancement Officer, Kristin leads the marketing, communications, and philanthropy efforts for Girl Scouts San Diego. Kristin brings more than 20 years of experience in the nonprofit sector focused on fundraising, board development and governance, program development, marketing, volunteer management, and special events.

Most recently, Kristin served as Chief Advancement Officer at Father Joe's Villages with direct oversight of the agency's development, grants, communications, and volunteer services departments. Kristin provided strategic vision and leadership for individual giving, foundation and government relations, corporate partnerships, donor communications, public relations, and advertising. During her tenure, private philanthropy grew from $11.5 million to more than $30 million annually.

Prior to Father Joe's Villages, Kristin served as Director of Advancement at the Academy of Our Lady of Peace, Executive Director at Piedmont Environmental Alliance, Director of Advancement at Moreau Catholic High School, and Vice President of Development for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Northern California Chapter.

Focused on leading a purpose-filled life, Kristin has dedicated her career, volunteerism, and personal philanthropy toward strengthening the community and is thrilled to focus her attention on the important mission of Girl Scouts San Diego.

Kristin earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communication Studies from San Francisco State University. Kristin is an active member of the San Diego Downtown Breakfast Rotary Club. She lives in Chula Vista with her husband, Mark, and two sons, Sean and Andrew. In her spare time, Kristin enjoys cooking, binge-watching streaming series, and planning her family's next big adventure.
