Welcome to our Girl Scout troop! This a safe space for girls (and adults) to learn by doing, try new things, and have fun. We have a great group of families who have indicated a willingness to help out, and we invite you to add your talents and interests as well. Together, we can develop a wonderful program for the girls in our troop! Check out the 4HER flyer with information, including specific ways you can choose to help.

Parents and guardians are the best experts on their own children, from knowing favorite foods to the kinds of situations that can lead to laughter or tears. Your answers will help me (your troop leader) get to know your girl, and create a warm welcome with the other girls. Answers are kept private, so please be candid. Comfortable and open communications between leaders and families is crucial.

What is your girl most looking forward to in Girl Scouts? What is she concerned about?

What are your girl's favorite activities at home, in your neighborhood, at her school?

What would make this a successful experience for your child? What helps her be successful?

What are your girl's needs in this program (medical, safety, mobility, and social)?

What motivates your girl? How do you usually let her know she's doing a good job?

What does your child do that makes you smile? And what does she do that makes her smile?

What makes her angry or upset? What does it look like when that happens?

What should I do if that happens?

Is there anything else you'd like to share about your girl?

Thank you for providing the tips that will support a positive experience for your Girl Scout!
